Analysis of Table 2.3

Short term overseas arrivals by air for September quarter 1994 (73,500) were up by 14,800 arrivals or 25 per cent compared with September quarter 1993. The largest increase was in Indonesian arrivals whose numbers more than doubled, increasing from 4,100 for the September quarter 1993 to 8,900 for the September quarter 1994. For the same period the number of Japanese arrivals decreased from 8,600 to 8,400.

The major source countries were Singapore (15 per cent of total), the United Kingdom and Ireland (14 per cent), Indonesia (12 per cent) and Japan (11 per cent).

Analysis of Table 2.4

September 1994 marked the introduction of new passenger cards and this represents a break in statistical series for overseas arrival and departure statistics classified by purpose of journey.

In the September quarter 1994 there were 73,500 short term overseas arrivals by air. Some 43,300 arrivals or 59 per cent, gave the reason for their journey as holiday, and a further 15,200 arrivals or 21 per cent said they were visiting friends or relatives.

The leading source countries for short term arrivals on holiday were Singapore (18 per cent of total), Japan (17 per cent) and Indonesia (15 per cent).

For short term arrivals visiting friends or relatives the leading source countries were the United Kingdom and Ireland (31 per cent of total) and New Zealand (19 per cent).

Analysis of Table 2.6

Of the 84,100 short term resident departures by air in September quarter 1994, 61 per cent were going on holiday, 17 per cent were visiting friends/relatives and 15 per cent were going to a convention/conference or to do business.

For residents departing on holiday the most popular destinations were Indonesia (35 per cent of total), and the United Kingdom and Ireland (13 per cent).

Of those residents departing to visit friends/relatives overseas, 34 per cent went to the United Kingdom or Ireland, and a further 13 per cent went to New Zealand.

PURPOSE OF JOURNEY: HOLIDAY
1992-93, 1993-94

Analysis of Table 2.7

Whilst the availability of all types of tourist accommodation in Western Australia has increased steadily over the last few years, there has been substantial growth in the numbers of Holiday Flats, Units and Houses available for letting. This is well indicated by increases of 5.1 per cent in 1991-92 and 5.2 per cent in 1992-93. The Tourism Industry has continued to meet this demand for self catering, self contained accommodation in 1993-94 resulting in an increase of 11.6 per cent to 2,224 units as at 30 June 1994.

Analysis of Table 6.4

When compared with the previous year, coal production in 1993-94 fell by 5.4 per cent to 5,151,000 tonnes. All of this shortfall occurred in the last quarter of the year and was caused by the undertaking of a major economic rationalisation process by coal producers. A general move away from underground mining was the major consequence of this rationalisation.

Reduced production continued into July and August 1994 but the August figure came to within 40,000 tonnes of the August 1993 total, indicating that the industry is closing the gap by improving production from non-underground sources.

FOR MORE INFORMATION . . .

The ABS publishes a wide range of information on Australia's economic and social conditions. A catalogue of publications and products is available from any of our Offices (see below for contact details).

Information Consultancy

Special tables or in-depth data investigations are provided by the ABS Information Consultancy in each of our Offices (see below for contact details).

Electronic Data Services

A growing range of our data is available on electronic media. The ABS intends discontinuing its statistical information service on DISCOVERY. Please contact Peter Davidson (Phone 06 252 6684) to discuss possible alternatives for acquiring statistics or if you wish to comment on this proposal. Our Telestats service delivers major economic publications ready to download into your computer on the day of release. Our Ausstats service enables on-line access to a data base of thousands of up-to-date time series. Selected datasets are also available on diskette or CD-rom. For more details on our electronic services, contact Information Services in any of our Offices on the numbers below.

Bookshops and Subscriptions

There are over 500 titles available from the ABS Bookshops in each of our Offices. You can also receive any of our publications on a regular basis. Join our subscription mailing service and have your publications mailed to you in Australia at no additional cost.
